The State of South Dakota constitutes one judicial district divided into four divisions for purposes of case assignment. (28 U.S.C. § 122):

(1) The NORTHERN DIVISION comprises the counties of Brown, Campbell, Clark, Codington, Corson, Day, Deuel, Edmunds, Grant, Hamlin, McPherson, Marshall, Roberts, Spink, and Walworth.

The place of holding court is Aberdeen.

(2) The SOUTHERN DIVISION comprises the counties of Aurora, Beadle, Bon Homme, Brookings, Brule, Charles Mix, Clay, Davison, Douglas, Hanson, Hutchinson, Kingsbury, Lake, Lincoln, McCook, Miner, Minnehaha, Moody, Sanborn, Turner, Union, and Yankton.

The place of holding court is Sioux Falls.

(3) The CENTRAL DIVISION comprises the counties of Buffalo, Dewey, Faulk, Gregory, Haakon, Hand, Hughes, Hyde, Jerauld, Jones, Lyman, Mellette, Potter, Stanley, Sully, Todd, Tripp, and Ziebach.

The place of holding court is Pierre.

(4) The WESTERN DIVISION comprises the counties of Bennett, Butte, Custer, Fall River, Harding, Jackson, Lawrence, Meade, Pennington, Perkins, and Shannon.

The place of holding court is Rapid City.

INDIVIDUAL CALENDARS

The court operates on an individual calendar system. Each judge in service assumes responsibility for the cases, both civil and criminal, randomly assigned to him/her. The chief judge shall assign responsibility for cases not randomly assigned or in the event of a recusal. The schedule in each case is fixed by court order. All preliminary motions will be heard insofar as practicable by the judge or magistrate judge assigned to the case in question. Inquiries as to motions or other matters having to do with a particular case may be addressed to the clerk at Sioux Falls, Rapid City, or Pierre, as appropriate, for the attention of the judge who is assigned to the case.

LOCAL RULE NUMBERING

These local rules have been numbered consistently with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the conventions of the United States Judicial Conference's Local Rule Project. Generally, the number of each of the local rules is dictated by the number of the corresponding rule in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

LR 1.1 SCOPE OF THE RULES

- A. Citation Form. The local civil rules are to be cited as "D.S.D. Civ. LR ____."
- B. Scope and Effective Date. The local civil rules govern all civil proceedings in the District of South Dakota to the extent they are not inconsistent with any statute or law of the United States or any rule or order of the Supreme Court of the United States and become effective on December 1, 2009.

- C. Relationship to Prior Rules; Actions Pending on Effective Date. These rules supersede all previous rules promulgated by this court or any judge of this court. They shall govern all applicable civil proceedings brought in this court after they take effect. They also shall apply to all proceedings pending at the time they take effect, except to the extent that, in the opinion of the court, the application thereof would not be feasible or would work injustice, in which event the former rules shall govern. Any judge may establish and enforce standard operating procedures not in conflict with these local rules or the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

LR 5.1 SERVING AND FILING PLEADINGS AND OTHER PAPERS

A. Service.

- 1. Consent to electronic service. All attorneys, including attorneys admitted pro hac vice and attorneys authorized to represent the United States, must register with the court's electronic filing system. Attorneys may petition the court for a registration exemption for good cause shown.

Attorneys registered with the court's electronic filing system will receive electronic notice of documents entered into the system.

Registration constitutes written consent to electronic service of all documents filed in accordance with these rules and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

- 2. What constitutes service. Receipt of Notice of Electronic Filing (NEF) that is generated by the Case Management/Electronic Case Filing (CM/ECF) system shall constitute service of pleadings or other papers on any person who has consented to electronic service. Parties who have not consented to electronic service including exempt attorneys and pro se parties shall be served in accordance with these rules and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

Service of the summons and complaint may not be made electronically, but should proceed according to Fed. R. Civ. P. 4.

B. Filing.

- 1. What constitutes filing/official record. Electronic transmission of a document to the Electronic Filing System together with the transmission of a Notice of Electronic Filing from the court constitutes filing of the document for all purposes of the local rules of this court and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and constitutes entry of the document on the docket kept by the clerk of court under Fed. R. Civ. P. 58 and 79. When a document has been filed electronically, the official record is the electronic document as stored by the court and is deemed filed at the date and time stated on the Notice of Electronic Filing from the court. The party filing the document is bound by the document as filed.

2. Method of Filing.

(a) Electronic Filing.

Documents filed by attorneys shall be filed electronically subject to subsection A1. Counsel admitted pro hac vice may not file documents with the court.

(b) Traditional Filing.

Documents filed by exempt attorneys and pro se parties shall be filed by delivering the original to the clerk within 14 days after service on the opposing party or parties.

(c) Exceptions. Summonses, complaints, notices of appeal, motions to seal and documents to be filed under seal shall be filed by delivering the original to the clerk.

3. Certificate of Service. Any document after the complaint that is required to be filed shall be accompanied by a certificate of service reflecting how service was effectuated on all parties. The court prefers that the certificate of service appear at the end of the document rather than as a separate pleading.

4. Electronic Filing, Signing, or Verification. The user login and password required to submit documents to the CM/ECF System serve as the filing user's signature on all electronic documents filed with the court. They also serve as a signature for purposes of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (including Fed. R. Civ. P. 11), the local rules of this court, and any other purpose for which a signature is required in connection with proceedings before the court. Electronically filed documents must include a signature block and set forth the name, address, telephone number, and e-mail address of the filing user. In addition, the name of the filing user under whose login and password the documents are submitted must be preceded by a "/s/" and typed in the space where the signature would otherwise appear or a facsimile of the filing user's signature must appear in the signature block.

No filing user or other person may knowingly permit a filing user's login and password to be used by someone other than an authorized agent of the filing user.

Registered Attorneys agree to protect the security of their passwords and immediately notify the clerk if they learn that their password has been compromised. Attorneys may be subject to sanctions for failure to comply with this provision

- 5. Documents requiring the signature of more than one party. Documents requiring signatures of more than one party may be electronically filed either by (a) submitting a scanned document containing all necessary signatures; (b) identifying on the document the parties whose signatures are required and by the submission of a notice of endorsement by the other parties no later than 7 calendar days after filing; or (c) in any other manner approved by the court. When filing documents that require signatures from other parties, it is not permissible to insert a "/s/" for another person's signature.

LR 5.2 PRIVACY PROTECTION FOR FILINGS MADE WITH THE COURT

- A. Pursuant to the E-Government Act of 2002, parties shall refrain from including, or shall partially redact where inclusion is necessary, the following personal data identifiers from all pleadings and papers filed with the clerk of court, including exhibits thereto, unless otherwise ordered by the court:

1. Social Security numbers and Taxpayer Identification numbers. Only the last four digits of these numbers should be used.
 2. Name of an individual known to be a minor. Only the initials of the minor should be used.
 3. Dates of birth. Only the year should be used.
 4. Financial account numbers. Only the last four digits of these numbers should be used.
 5. Home addresses. Only the city and state should be used.
- B. Parties wishing to do so may, in addition to the redacted filing, file under seal with the clerk of court either an unredacted copy of the pleading or a reference sheet containing a key to the redacted personal data identifiers. Any such filings shall contain a cover sheet stating the following, "Document filed under seal pursuant to the E-Government Act." Such documents will be retained by the clerk of court as part of the record.
- C. The responsibility for redacting these personal identifiers rests solely with counsel and the parties. The clerk of court will not review each filing for compliance with this rule.

LR 7.1 MOTIONS

- A. Motions to Seal. Any motion seeking the sealing of pleadings, motions, exhibits, or other documents to be filed in the court record shall include (a) proposed reasons supported by specific factual representations to justify the sealing and (b) an explanation why alternatives to sealing would not provide sufficient protection. A motion to seal and the documents to which the motion refers shall be filed in paper form. The documents to which the motion to seal refers shall be filed under seal by the clerk of court until the court rules upon the motion. The court will not rule upon the motion until at least 7 calendar days after filing to permit the filing of objections.
- B. Required Written Brief. With every motion raising a question of law, except oral motions made during a hearing or trial, the movant shall serve on opposing counsel and file with the clerk of court a brief containing the specific points of law with the authorities in support thereof on which the movant relies, including the Federal Rule of Civil Procedure on the basis of which the motion is made. On or before 21 calendar days after service of a motion and brief, unless otherwise specifically ordered by the court, all opposing parties shall serve and file with the clerk of court a responsive brief containing the specific points of law with authorities in support thereof in opposition to the motion. The movant may file with the clerk of court a reply brief within 14 calendar days after service of the responsive brief.

- 1. Page Limitation on Briefs. Briefs and any attachments other than documentary evidence attached in accordance with D.S.D. LR 56.1(A) shall not exceed 25 pages or 12,000 words unless prior approval has been obtained from the court. If a brief exceeds 25 pages, it shall be accompanied by a certificate by the attorney, or an unrepresented party, that the brief complies with the type-volume limitation. The person preparing the certificate may rely on the word count of the word-processing system used to prepare the brief.
- 2. Attachments. A party must submit as exhibits or attachments only those excerpts of the referenced document that are directly germane to the matter under consideration by the court. Excerpted material must be clearly and prominently identified as such. Highlighting or underlining relevant portions is encouraged. Parties who file excerpts of documents as exhibits or attachments under this rule do so without prejudice to their right to timely file additional excerpts. Responding parties may file additional excerpts that they believe are directly germane. The court may require parties to file additional excerpts or the complete document.

- C. Oral Argument. Oral argument shall be had only upon order of the court. Requests for oral argument shall be made by separate statement at the conclusion of the motion or responsive brief, or by any party by a separate document filed within 14 calendar days after the filing of the motion or responsive brief.

LR 10.1 IDENTIFICATION

A pleading or other paper presented for filing shall plainly show the caption of the case, a description or designation of the contents, and on whose behalf the same is offered for filing. All papers presented after the initial pleading must bear the file number assigned to the case. All papers must be signed and include the typed or printed name, address, telephone number, and email address of the signer.

LR 15.1 MOTIONS TO AMEND PLEADINGS

In addition to other requirements of these local civil rules, any party moving to amend a pleading shall attach a copy of the proposed amended pleading to its motion to amend with the proposed changes highlighted or underlined so that they may be easily identified. If the court grants the motion, the moving party shall file a clean original of the amended pleading with the clerk of court within 7 days.

LR 16.1 SCHEDULING CONFERENCES

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P 16(b), this court has determined that its pretrial conference procedures are inappropriate for certain types of cases and hereby exempts the following:

1. Actions for review on an administrative record including bankruptcy appeals and social security reviews;
2. Condemnation Actions;
3. Foreclosures;
4. Deportation Actions;
5. Equal Access to Justice/Fee Award Appeals;
6. Forfeiture and Statutory Penalty Actions;
7. Freedom of Information Actions;
8. Government Collection Actions including actions to recover benefit payments and actions to collect on a student loan guaranteed by the United States;
9. Judgments/Actions to Enforce or Register;
10. Petitions for habeas corpus or any other proceeding to challenge a criminal conviction or sentence;
11. Actions brought without an attorney by a person in the custody of the United States, a state, or a state subdivision;

12. Selective Service Actions;
13. Proceedings ancillary to a proceeding in another court;
14. Actions to enforce or quash a summons or subpoena of any kind;
15. Actions to enforce an arbitration award.

LR 26.1 FILING OF DISCOVERY MATERIALS

- A. Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(d), depositions, interrogatories, requests for documents, requests for admissions, and answers and responses thereto shall not be filed with the clerk of court.
- B. Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1) and (2) materials shall not be filed with the clerk of court unless otherwise ordered by the court.
- C. Any portions of discovery materials necessary for the disposition of any motion filed with the clerk of court (with relevant portions highlighted or underlined) shall either be attached as an exhibit to the party's brief in support of such motion or attached to the party's affidavit filed with the brief.
- D. If a party designates any or all of any deposition as evidence to be offered in the trial of any case, such deposition shall be filed with the clerk of court at the same time as that party's designation consistent with LR 5.2.

- E. Depositions used by a party only for the purpose of contradicting or impeaching the testimony of a deponent as a witness, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 32(a)(1), shall not be filed unless otherwise ordered by the court.

LR 26.2 PRESERVATION AND DISPOSAL OF DEPOSITIONS

- A. All depositions that have been read or offered into evidence by agreement of the parties, or at trial or submission of the case to the court, shall become a permanent part of the file.
- B. After the ultimate conclusion of the case, depositions not offered or received into evidence may be withdrawn by the parties taking the deposition. All unclaimed depositions may be disposed of by the clerk of court after giving 28 calendar days' notice to all parties of the clerk's intention to do so.

LR 26.3 MEETING OF PARTIES

Unless otherwise ordered by the court in a particular case, the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f), requiring a meeting of and report from the parties, apply to all civil actions in this court except cases exempted under D.S.D. Civ. LR 16.1.

LR 29.1 STIPULATIONS MADE IN OPEN COURT OR WRITING

No stipulation, agreement, or consent between or among parties or their attorneys in respect to any proceeding in this court shall be binding unless made in open court and entered in the minutes or reduced to writing and subscribed by the parties or their attorneys. Such stipulation or agreement relating to changing the place of trial, continuing cases to a later date, extending time to answer or otherwise plead, or setting any matter down for hearing, shall not be binding unless by order of the court.

LR 37.1 CONDITIONS FOR DISCOVERY MOTIONS

A party filing a motion concerning a discovery dispute shall file a separate certification describing the good faith efforts of the parties to resolve the dispute. If the court schedules a hearing on the motion, at least 7 calendar days prior to the hearing, or sooner as the court may require, the parties shall file a statement setting forth the matters upon which they have been unable to agree.

LR 39.1 TRIALS

- A. Opening Statements in Jury Trials. After a jury has been selected and sworn, the party upon whom rests the burden of proof may briefly, and without argument, make an opening statement to the jury. Thereafter, the adverse party may briefly, and without argument, make an opening statement to the jury.
- B. Number of Attorneys. On the trial of any action only one attorney per party shall be permitted to examine or cross-examine each witness, and not more than two attorneys per party shall sum up the case to the jury, unless the court shall otherwise order.

- C. Motions During Trial. The moving party shall be heard first, followed by the adverse party. The movant may reply, confining any remarks to the points first stated and a pertinent answer to respondent's argument. Thereafter, discussion on the question shall be closed unless the court requests further argument.

LR 40.1 CONTINUANCES

- A. Court Approval Required. In no event shall a case be continued without the approval of the court. Unless the court shall deem it unnecessary, any party seeking a continuance shall do so by motion, which shall include the affidavit of the party seeking the continuance or of some person who knows the facts upon which the application is founded. The affidavit shall contain the grounds for the continuance. If the continuance is sought because of the absence of a material witness, the affidavit must show that the party applying for the continuance has a valid cause of action or defense and has used due diligence to prepare for trial, the nature and kind of diligence used, the name and city of residence of the absent witness, and the substance of the testimony expected to be given by such witness.
- B. When Witness Absent. Unless, in the opinion of the court, justice shall require it, the trial will not be continued or postponed on account of the absence of a witness if the adverse party will admit that the witness, if present, would testify as stated in the affidavit prepared in accordance with section A of this rule; but in such case, the applicant may read the testimony of such witness as stated in his affidavit, subject to all proper objections which might be interposed if the witness were present. Every continuance or postponement granted upon application shall be upon such terms as the court may impose.

LR 43.1 EXHIBITS

- A. Marking of Exhibits. Exhibits in civil trials and hearings must be marked in accordance with instructions from the court.
- B. Custody of Clerk. All exhibits offered or received into evidence at a trial or hearing must be left in the custody of the clerk of court, except as provided in sections C and E of this rule. Until judgment in a case becomes final, exhibits may not be taken from the custody of the clerk of court, except upon order of the court and the execution of a receipt.
- C. Custody with Offering Party. Except as provided in section D of this rule, any exhibit not suitable for filing or transmission to the appellate court as part of the appellate record must be retained in the custody of the party offering the exhibit. Such exhibits include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. "Unsafe or Dangerous Exhibits," as defined in section (H) of this rule;
2. Jewelry, liquor, money, articles of high monetary value, and counterfeit money; and
3. Documents or physical exhibits of unusual sensitivity, bulk, or weight.

Except when such an exhibit is being used in court during a trial or hearing, or is in the custody of a jury or the court during deliberations, the offering party must retain custody of the exhibit. The offering party must preserve the exhibit in an unaltered condition until 28 calendar days after the resolution of any appeal. The exhibit may then be disposed of by the party having custody of the exhibit, but only after the party gives 28 calendar days' written notice to all other parties. The party retaining custody of such an exhibit must make the exhibit available to the court and to all other parties for use in preparing an appeal, and such party must transmit the exhibit safely to the appellate court, if required. Such party also must maintain and document the chain of custody of the exhibit.

- D. Biological Evidence. Biological evidence (for example, blood, saliva, tissue, and items containing bodily fluids upon which DNA or other forensic tests could be performed) must be retained by the clerk of court until disposed of pursuant to section F of this rule.

E. Substitution of Photographs for Exhibits. If a party has offered into evidence at a trial or hearing an exhibit that is not suitable for filing or transmission to the appellate court as part of the appellate record, the offering party must provide a photographic print of the exhibit to the clerk of court to be substituted for the exhibit, and the party must retain custody of the exhibit as provided in section C of this rule.

F. Disposition of Exhibits. After judgment has become final, or the time for appeal has elapsed, exhibits left in the custody of the clerk of court may be claimed and withdrawn by the party who offered the exhibit. Any exhibits not claimed and withdrawn within 60 calendar days after the ultimate conclusion of a judgment may be disposed of by the clerk of court after giving 28 calendar days' notice to all parties of the clerk's intention to do so.

G. Record of Withdrawal or Destruction. A party withdrawing an exhibit must execute a receipt that will be filed by the clerk of court. Exhibits disposed of by the clerk of court will be accounted for by a statement prepared and filed by the clerk of court showing the date such action was taken and the date notice of intention to do so was given to all parties.

H. Unsafe or Dangerous Exhibits. As used in this rule, the phrase "unsafe or dangerous exhibit" includes narcotics and other controlled substances, firearms, ammunition, explosives, knives, any object capable of use as a weapon, poisons, dangerous chemicals, hazardous substances, and any other item or matter that may present a substantial risk of physical injury or property damage if not properly handled, stored, or protected.

LR 43.2 TAKING TESTIMONY

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 43(a) testimony may be taken in open court by contemporaneous transmission from a different location under certain circumstances. These circumstances are set forth in the Protocol for the Use of Interactive Video Conferencing (Civil), which can be found on the court's website at www.sdd.uscourts.gov.

LR 47.1 EXAMINATION OF POTENTIAL JURORS

The voir dire examination of potential jurors may be conducted by the court or by counsel, or both, as the court may direct.

LR 47.2 QUESTIONING OF JURORS AFTER TRIAL

None of the parties or their attorneys or anybody acting on their behalf shall contact jurors after a trial until the jurors have completed their term of service as jurors. The court may order exceptions to this rule in various instances, including but not limited to, the instance of a hung jury.

LR 48.1 NUMBER OF JURORS

In all civil jury cases, the jury shall consist of not fewer than six members nor more than twelve members, to be determined by the court.

LR 51.1 JURY INSTRUCTIONS

- A. Required Pretrial Filing of Instructions. Each party shall file with the clerk of court, as ordered by the court, all proposed substantive jury instructions that reasonably can be anticipated in advance of trial, including a "statement of the case" instruction and "theory of defense."
- B. Form of Instructions. All proposed jury instructions shall identify the party submitting the instruction and specifically cite the authority or authorities upon which it is based.
- C. Service of Instructions. Copies of all proposed jury instructions shall be served on all parties.

LR 53.1 ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Parties are encouraged to use alternative dispute resolution procedures to try to settle their cases without a trial. Magistrate judges are available as mediators to facilitate alternative dispute resolution procedures.

LR 54.1 TAXATION OF COSTS

- A. Procedure. Before costs may be taxed, the prevailing party entitled to recover costs shall file a verified bill of costs within 28 calendar days after entry of judgment or an order of dismissal, together with proof of service on the party liable for costs. The party liable for costs may within 14 calendar days thereafter file with the clerk of court exceptions to the costs or any specific item therein.

The clerk of court may then tax costs and, upon allowance, the costs shall be included in the judgment or decree. Upon motion of either party within 7 calendar days after the clerk taxes costs, the action of the clerk may be reviewed by the court.

- B. Default. In a default case, the clerk of court may tax costs as a matter of course without notice.
- C. Attorney's Fees. A party moving for attorney's fees shall attach to the motion an affidavit setting out the time reasonably spent in the litigation and any factual matters pertinent to the motion for attorney's fees. The motion must be filed no later than 28 calendar days after the entry of judgment absent a showing of good cause. The respondent may by counter affidavit controvert any of the factual matters contained in the motion and may assert any factual matters bearing on the award of attorney's fees.

Objections to an allowance of attorney's fees must be filed within 21 calendar days after service on the party against whom the award of attorney's fees is sought. The court will then determine the appropriate attorney's fees, if any, without further hearing, unless in the court's opinion a hearing is needed to resolve serious factual disputes between the parties.

On its own motion, the court may grant an allowance of reasonable attorney's fees to a prevailing party in appropriate cases.

The failure to move for an award of attorney's fees within the prescribed time may be considered by the court to be a waiver of any claim for attorney's fees.
